Central Insurance Announces Promotion

Alpharetta, GEORGIA – The Central Insurance Companies have announced the promotion of David Lee, CPCU, to Assistant Vice President in its Southeast Regional Office effective June 3, 2019.

A graduate of the University of Georgia with a degree in Business Management, Lee joined Central in 2003 in the Claims department. During his career with Central he has also held positions in both Personal Lines and Commercial Lines Underwriting before becoming Marketing Manager for North and East Georgia. He was promoted to Regional Marketing Manager for the Southeast Region in 2016, managing the five regional marketing managers.

Lee will work with Southeast Regional Manager and Senior Vice President Keith Moore on strategic perpetuation of the underwriting, marketing, and claims functions serving Central's agency partners in Georgia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia before Moore's planned retirement in November 2019.

Lee and his wife, Erica, reside in Alpharetta with their two sons.

Central Mutual Insurance Company is a personal and commercial property and casualty insurance company operating exclusively through independent insurance agents in 24 states. The home office is located in Van Wert, Ohio, with regional offices located in Dallas, Atlanta, Boston, and Van Wert.
