

RESOURCES TO PREPARE FOR AND RECOVER FROM A FLOOD

Be Ready: Know Where to Find Help Before and After a Flood

The aftermath of a flood catastrophe can be a very frustrating and stressful time for any family, business and community. Being prepared before a flood event is the best way to minimize the frustration and stress. And it's invaluable to know where to find resources to assist in the rebuilding process after the flood.

Read these articles to help you, your family and your business prepare for a flood.

Articles and Resources for Living and Visiting in the Flood Zone:

Maps: Which Parts of the U.S. See Flash Floods Most Often?

The Ultimate Guide to Hurricane Facts, Information & Resources

Flash Flood Travel Safety Tips: 5 Must-Ask Questions

5 Ways to Prevent Your Basement from Flooding

Water Damage Restoration & Clean Up Checklist for Homes, Businesses, Schools & More

Disaster Safety for People with Disabilities: What to Do When Emergency Weather Strikes

Hurricane Supply List

Driving to Safety: The Car Owner's Guide to Emergency Evacuation

Landscape Topics Relating to Hurricane Damage and Recovery

Floods and Your Livestock

Use these resources to help you, your family and your business recover from a flood.

National Resources List:

American Red Cross	redcross.org	(800) 733-2767
Better Business Bureau	bbb.org	(703) 276-0100
Disaster Assistance (FEMA)	disasterassistance.gov	(800) 621-3362
Federal Emergency Management Agency	fema.gov	(800) 621-3362
Salvation Army	disaster.salvationarmyusa.org
Samaritan's Purse	samaritanspurse.org	(828) 262-1980
Small Business Administration	sba.gov	(800) 659-2955
Nat. Emergency Family Registry & Locator Service		(800) 588-9822

Response is everything.®
HOME | AUTO | BUSINESS | FLOOD
www.selective.com

