Laura Edmonds Joins JSA as Human Resources / Office Manager

Boone, NC - Jackson Sumner & Associates (JSA) announced the recent addition of Laura Edmonds as Human Resources and Office Manager for the organization's Leadership Team.

Edmonds is originally from Galax, Virginia graduating Cum Laude with a degree in Marketing Management from Virginia Tech. After two years working for the university, she moved to Boone and worked 8 years for an organization leading a marketing team where she first started developing a passion for the professional development of employees.

"We are very pleased to have Laura join our team to head up our HR efforts," stated JSA President and CEO Danielle Wade. "Her excellent organizational skills, enthusiasm, and resourcefulness have been utilized since day one, and we are happy to have her on board as an integral part of the leadership of JSA."

Edmonds will helm all HR efforts including developing and communicating company policies and procedures to employees, managing the onboarding of new employees, personnel reviews and training opportunities, and developing goals, objectives, and systems to enhance the everyday experience and long-term careers for all of JSA's 70+ employees. She will report to directly to Wade.

Edmonds lives in Boone, NC with her husband. In her free time, they enjoy taking advantage of all the outdoor opportunities the area has to offer, including hiking, camping, and playing music.
