

North Carolina CIC Fellowships 2022-2023

IIANC will award five (5) Fellowships to attend a CIC Institute during the upcoming year. The Fellowships are presented in honor of Dr. Robert S. Cline, CPCU, CLU, and Education Consultant for the CIC Program in the Carolinas from its inception in 1976 to 1991.

Each Fellowship covers the entire registration fee of $460.00 to one (1) Institute in North Carolina from the date awarded through one calendar year.

The Certified Insurance Counselor Program is the nation's largest professional education program designed for independent insurance agents and other insurance practitioners. It consists of five (5) intensive two and one half-day institutes. The Fellowship is offered for those interested in pursuing the CIC Designation. A comprehensive essay exam is taken at the end of each Institute.

Who's eligible?

- First time participants in the CIC Program (preferred)
- Licensed agent, broker, adjuster, or solicitor
- Agency must be a member of IIANC
- Must have least two years of full-time experience in the insurance industry
- Anyone not currently holding the CIC designation
- Must take any applicable exam – passing grade not required
- Demonstrate a commitment to professional continuing education

Only one nomination will be accepted from any one individual. The application (see attached) must be accompanied by one letter of endorsement and three (3) names of personal reference. The letter may come from one of the three names. In order to be eligible for this year's Fellowships, the application and letter of endorsement must be received by IIANC no later than July 31, 2022.

Incomplete applications will not be accepted.
